1. Code of Conduct for Athletics Clubs

As a responsible Athletics Club we will:

- Adopt national welfare policies and procedures, adhere to the codes of conduct and respond to any suspected breaches in accordance with the Welfare Procedures;
- Appoint a welfare officer, preferably two, one male and one female, and ensure that they are provided with appropriate training to act as a first point of contact for concerns about welfare issues;
- Ensure that all staff and volunteers operating within the club environment hold the appropriate qualifications and have undertaken the appropriate checks e.g. Disclosure and Barring service( DBS), licences, and relevant qualifications ;
- Ensure that coaches, technical officials and club officers attend recommended training in welfare and safeguarding and protecting children as appropriate;
- Liaise appropriately with parents/persons with parental responsibility, officials, coaches, sports scientists, national governing bodies and other relevant people/organisations to ensure that good practice is maintained;
- Ensure that information is available at the club and to all club officers, team managers, coaches and officials regarding contact details for local social services, the police and the NSPCC;
- Ensure that club officers and volunteers always act responsibly and set an example to others including younger members;
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every club member and others involved in athletics and treat everyone equally;
- Consistently promote positive aspects of the sport such as fair play and never condone rule violations or the use of prohibited or age-inappropriate substances;
- Challenge inappropriate behaviour and language by others;
- Place the welfare and safety of the athlete above other considerations including the development of performance;
- Report any suspected misconduct by club officials, coaches, technical officials or other people involved in athletics to the Club, Regional, National or UKA welfare officer as soon as possible.

2. Code of Conduct for Coaches and Coaching Assistants

As a responsible athletics Coach you will:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every athlete and others involved in athletics and treat everyone equally;
- Place the welfare and safety of the athlete above the development of performance;
- Be appropriately qualified including obtaining DBS clearance, update your licence and education as and when required by UKA and adhere to the terms of the coaching licence;
- Ensure that activities you direct or guide are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of the individual athlete;
- At the outset clarify with athletes (and where appropriate, with parents or carers) exactly what it is that is expected of them and what athletes are entitled to expect from you;
- Never try to recruit, either overtly or covertly, athletes who are already receiving coaching. If approached by an athlete receiving coaching refer immediately to the coach currently providing coaching support;
- Try to observe a recommended maximum ratio of 1 coach to 12 athletes at a training session or work in partnership with another coach/coaching assistant;
- Cooperate fully with others involved in the sport such as technical officials, team managers, other coaches, doctors, physiotherapists, sport scientists and representatives of the governing body in the best interests of the athlete;
- Consistently promote positive aspects of the sport such as fair play and never condone rule violations or the use of prohibited or age-inappropriate substances;
- Encourage and guide athletes to accept responsibility for their own performance and behaviour;
- Develop appropriate working relationships with athletes based on mutual trust and respect, especially with those athletes under 18 years or vulnerable adults;
- Do not exert undue influence to obtain personal benefit or reward;
- A coach MUST strictly maintain a clear boundary between friendship and intimacy with athletes and do not conduct inappropriate relationships with athletes. Relationship with athletes can cause significant problems for other team members, raising concerns of favouritism and/or victimisation should the relationship later end;
- In particular, you MUST NOT allow an intimate personal relationship to develop between yourself and any athlete aged under 18 years. Any violation of this could result in a coach licence being withdrawn. It may also be a criminal offence to conduct a relationship with an athlete aged under 16 years. It may also be a violation of your coaching licence to form an intimate personal relationship with a vulnerable adult coached by you;
- It is strongly recommended that you do not allow intimate relationships to develop between yourself and athletes coached by you aged over 18 years.

As a responsible coach, when participating in or attending any athletics activities, including training/coaching sessions and competition events you will:

- Act with dignity and display courtesy and good manners towards others;
- Avoid swearing and abusive language and irresponsible behaviour including behaviour that is dangerous to yourself or others, acts of violence, bullying, harassment and physical and sexual abuse;
- Challenge inappropriate behaviour and language by others;
- Be aware that your attitude and behaviour directly affects the behaviour of athletes under your supervision ;
- Never engage in any inappropriate or illegal behaviour;
- Avoid destructive behaviour and leave athletics venues as you find them;
- Not carry or consume alcohol to excess and/or illegal substances;
- Avoid carrying any items that could be dangerous to yourself or others excluding athletics equipment used in the course of your athletics activity.

In addition, coaches should follow these guidelines on best coaching practice, in particular with young athletes or with vulnerable adults

- Avoid critical language or actions, such as sarcasm which could undermine an athlete's self esteem;
- Avoid spending time alone with young athletes unless clearly in the view of others to protect both yourself and the young athlete. In special circumstances, for example when coaching elite young athletes, one to one coaching sessions may form part of the required training schedule. In this circumstance, parental/guardian consent must be sought and obtained prior to sessions taking place. The coach must inform the parent/guardian of the venue for training and an emergency contact number should be provided by both the coach and parent/guardian;
- Avoid taking young athletes alone in your car;
- Never invite a young athlete alone into your home;
- Never share a bedroom with a child;
- Always explain why and ask for consent before touching an athlete;
- Ensure that parents/carers know and have given consent before taking a young athlete away from the usual training venue;
- Work in same-sex pairs if supervising changing areas;
- Respect the right of young athletes to an independent life outside of athletics;
- Report any accidental injury, distress, misunderstanding or misinterpretation to the parents/carers and club Welfare officer as soon as possible;
- Report any suspected misconduct by other coaches or other people involved in athletics to the Club, Regional, National or UKA welfare officer as soon as possible.

3. Code of Conduct for Technical Officials

As a responsible technical official you will:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every athlete and others involved in athletics and treat everyone equally;
- Place the welfare and safety of the athlete above the development of performance;
- Be appropriately qualified including obtaining DBS clearance, update your licence and education as and when required by UKA and adhere to the terms of the technical officials licence;
- Keep up to date with any changes in the relevant competition rules and seek the advice of others if necessary;
- Ensure that activities you direct or guide are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of the individual athlete;
- At the outset clarify with athletes (and where appropriate, with parents or carers) exactly what is that is expected of them and what athletes are entitled to expect from you;
- Cooperate fully with others involved in the sport such as other technical officials, competition providers/organisers, team managers, coaches, and representatives of the governing body in the provision of fair and equitable conditions for the conduct of athletics events under the relevant rules of competition;
- Act in a decisive, objective but friendly manner in your interaction with other officials, athletes, coaches and spectators and carry out your duties in an efficient and non-abrasive manner;
- Consistently promote positive aspects of the sport such as fair play and never condone rule violations or the use of prohibited or age-inappropriate substances ;
- Never smoke whilst officiating or consume alcoholic beverages to a degree that it affects your ability or competence to undertake your officiating duties;
- Be fully prepared for the officiating task that is assigned to you;
- Dress appropriately, to the standard and nature of the competition as outlined by the relevant officials committee;
- Arrive in good time for the competition and report to the official in charge;
- Conduct the event in accordance with the rules and with due respect to the welfare of the athlete;
- Work in a spirit of cooperation with other officials and do not interfere with their responsibilities;
- Offer guidance and support to less experienced officials whenever appropriate;
- Encourage and guide athletes to accept responsibility for their own performance and behaviour;
- Develop appropriate working relationships with athletes based on mutual trust and respect, especially with those athletes under 18 years or with vulnerable adults

- Do not exert undue influence to obtain personal benefit or reward;
- A Technical Official MUST strictly maintain a clear boundary between friendship and intimacy with athletes and do not conduct inappropriate relationships with athletes. ## 8. Code of Conduct regarding South Shields members use of social networking sites

Social networking is the process of interacting with other internet users in communal online spaces. It can be a useful means of engaging with other club members and with people who are involved with the local athletics community but are not members of the club. If used correctly, it can benefit our club by attracting new members to our club and activities. However, we ask that members are aware that social networking websites and weblogs are in the public domain and you may have little or even no control over who has access to the information that you may post

All South Shields Harriers members are therefore required to review the following guidelines and bear them in mind when using social networking sites.

Personal Use of social networking

When using social networking sites for personal purposes and you identify yourself as a member of South Shields Harriers, then

- Do not post anything that is in breach of the clubs code of conduct
- Do not post anything that demeans or could adversely affect the club
- Do not post any confidential information relating to the club. This includes information regarding club members' personal details, the clubs financial information or any internal discussions that involve specific individuals.

Members Use of social networking sites and/or internet sites that have been generated by South Shields Harriers

All club members should be conscious at all times that anything posted on, or uploaded to the clubs pages may well be read/seen by non-members of the club, and as such this could be seen as a reflection of the club. Members are requested to consider the following when posting to social media sites such as Facebook.

- Do not post anything that may be in breach of the clubs code of conduct;
- Be respectful to other users of the site as some comments may be not easily be understood;
- Do not post any material that may cause un-necessary offence to an individual or groups of people;
- Consider how your post may be interpreted by others using the site;
- Respect the public reputation of the club.

As a properly constituted club which is affiliated to the National Governing Body of our sport, England Athletics, we have certain duties and responsibilities to protect our club, our members and our sport. To help us comply with these duties, we ask that members do not post or upload any of the following:

- anything that may be considered offensive, abusive, discriminatory or defamatory, including messages, cartoons, images and jokes;
- anything that harasses or could be construed as harassing the person receiving it, including messages, cartoons, images and jokes;
- any sexually explicit or pornographic material;
- any material which is sexist, racist, homophobic or xenophobic;
- and copyrighted material, including software and printed matter, in violation of copyright laws;
- any material that could be considered as a chain letter or email;
- links advertising personal businesses (unless it has been pre-approved by request to the committee and may be deemed as acceptable if it is to be of benefit to the club).

As a footnote to the social media code of conduct, the committee reserves the right to remove any material posted to the pages generated by the club that may cause offence or be deemed as inappropriate.
